

Across

Weapon used to murder President Lincoln.

The war in the U.S. between the North and the South, 1861–65.

Item that Booth asked Mary Surratt to deliver for him to the Surratt Tavern.

'Thus Always to Tyrants!'

• Mary Surratt's son.

• Servant at the Seward home that identified Powell as the attempted assassin of Secretary Seward.

• First woman to be executed in the U.S.

• Dr. that Booth and Herold visited on the eve of the assassination.

• A secret plot to carry out an illegal or harmful act.

• Vice President in 1865.

• US General that was Lincoln's first choice to accompany him to the theatre.

• Death sentence that the conspirators were given upon the guilty verdict.

Down

1. Last name of Booth's fiancée.

2. Washington D.C. Theatre where President Lincoln was murdered.

4. Conspirator that attempted to assassinate Secretary Seward.

5. Play that the Lincoln's attended on the evening of April 14 1865.

6. Bridge that Booth made his escape to Maryland after shooting President Lincoln at Ford's Theatre.

10. Type of barn that Federal Troops found Booth and Herold hiding in.

12. Last word uttered by J.W. Booth.

15. Secretary of War 1865.

16. Nickname for the boy who held Booth's horse in the alley of Ford's Theatre.

19. Secretary of State in 1865.